12:00 PM - 01:30 PM EST

Delaware Small Business Chamber's 6-top mingles provide a valuable platform for networking with other small businesses.

With a maximum of six participants per table, these events foster meaningful conversations and help establish long-lasting connections.

By attending these smaller referral gatherings, you have the opportunity to showcase your products and services and build relationships with like-minded professionals who are not in direct competition with you.

With options for both upstate and downstate locations, and morning, afternoon, or evening time slots, you can choose the once-a-month program that best fit your schedule.

Join us and create a dynamic sales team to mutually promote and support each other's businesses.

Attendance and being on time is important. There is a $10 fee for any member over 15 minutes late or a no show without prior contact to the Chamber. Members may sign up for one a month up & downstate. If you cannot attend, please call the chamber ASAP 302-482-2120 so that we can let other participants know.

These events are very POWERFUL referral programs for our members. You are a big part of its successes, but on-time attendance is vital.

*Restaurants may not be aware of a 6-top but let them know you are waiting for up to 5 other people
Only 1 person per company may attend 6-tops*

The Delaware Small Business Chamber invites you to a unique and engaging networking event - the 60-Second Networking.

Prepare for an exciting opportunity to connect with fellow small business owners in multiple ways. This event, inspired by the concept of speed dating, allows you to rotate through various pairs, giving each participant 60 seconds to present their "elevator pitch." By the end of the event, you'll have interacted with up to 23 other passionate and driven business professionals.

But that's not all! This event is designed to provide an enriching experience from start to finish. Join us between 8:30 and 8:45 am to kick-start the networking session with some delicious breakfast goodies and beverages. This will allow you to mingle and establish connections before the program begins promptly at 9:00 am. You will have time afterward to continue your networking with specific attendees.

To ensure a diverse and dynamic networking environment, we are limiting participation to a maximum of two individuals from the same category. Don't miss out – sign up online today to secure your spot!
